

CK 700 Debt Collections and Revenue Management Procedures for Private & Public Corporations

Because debt recovery calls make up more than 90% of my job functions, this was the topic that was of the highest significance to me. The instructor was highly informative and taught me the tools and techniques that I can use to improve the current processes in place in my organization. This course is an excellent one, and I would recommend it to everyone in the debt recovery field. It is not only accurate and concise, but very practical. I learned ways and tactics I can use daily to improve my debt recovery skills. I now feel empowered to become an excellent recovery officer!

Jamal Graham, Recoveries Representative, Antigua Commercial Bank, St. John's, Antigua

The discussions between the participants and instructor were the most valuable part of the program for me. As a recoveries representative, I can use almost all the practical examples given to us in the class. I now understand how to construct proper debt collection letters to receive maximum results, and to help me perform my duties more efficiently. The instructor shared a lot of relevant debt collection stories and examples from various regions within the Caribbean. I received value for my money, by taking this course, and I will be producing more results for my organization.

Tamara Valarie, Recoveries Representative, Antigua Commercial Bank, St. John's, Antigua

This debt collection training course was a very comprehensive and informative one. I learned about several types of debt collection letters which will be helpful to me in the debt collection and debt recovery process.

El Kay Lebria Frederick-Marsh, Accounts Receivable Supervisor, Medical Benefits Scheme, St. John's, Antigua

I will use this training to improve my effectiveness in my job, because the information and structured detailed in this program has given me guidelines that I can use to organize my department in a way that can bring about better results. The program is very well-structured, and covered a wide range of debt collection issues, along with a managerial perspective of the operations involved in the process. The material provided to me was invaluable. It will form the basis for future references, as well as restructuring and retooling of my department. The manual is like the "Bible" of debt collection processes.

Finally, the instructor delivered the topics in a simple, and practical manner and used examples to explain his points. He provided comprehensive details of the subject matter and demonstrated that he has a wide knowledge on other related fields that can be helpful to me and other staff members of my department.

Cornelius Charles, Inspectorate Supervisor, Social Security Board, St. John's, Antigua

Customer service, and common telephone courtesy were of greatest importance to me. Being polite and showing empathy to others is key to dealing successfully with clients. I have learnt a great deal, and I will apply the knowledge I gained when conducting my daily functions. The instructor was very realistic in his delivery of the subject matter and gave many examples to match each participant's organization. Overall, I have gained a wealth of knowledge that I can utilize in the workplace.

Nakita Brown, Senior Legal Officer, Social Security Board, St. John's, Antigua

This debt collection course provided me with a thorough and comprehensive knowledge on collections on a whole and will change the way I view certain aspects of the field. It has taught me how to be clearer and more concise when dealing with customers in collection. The instructor has a very engaging personality and held my attention throughout the training. He helped us all to grasp difficult, and sometimes hard to understand information by using real-life examples. I am very appreciative for the new ideas, explanations, and material, which was handed to each participant – these items were well worth the cost of the training.

Cristal Aaron, Debt Management Clerk, Cable & Wireless (FLOW), St. John's, Antigua

I would recommend this course very highly because it has profound benefits in the overall success of any business with a collections function, customer service and other areas. I left this course feeling greatly confident about carrying out the functions of my job. It has shown me how to be a more active listener and showing concern about my customers. The techniques on how to deal with customers as it relates to collections, was of great interest to me, because I can improve my approach, which in turn, will help to improve my organization's bottom line. The instructor's delivery was exceptionally smooth and made it easy for participants to grasp information and concepts. I genuinely enjoyed the course and looked forward to attending the training each day it was held!

Rhosheda Benjamin. Credit & Collections Officer, Cable & Wireless (FLOW), St. John's, Antigua

This debt collection and revenue management training course for managers and supervisors, was much better than I thought it would have been! There were so many things I learned, insomuch, that I would recommend all my accounting and customer service staff personnel attend this course. It was clear to me that the instructor is fully engaged in the subject matter and has a passion for teaching, which kept the participants involved and made things remarkably interesting.

Rawle Reynolds, Manager, St. John's Development Corporation, St. John's, Antigua

The program was tailored to the realities of government agencies. It was practical, comprehensive, and clarified how compliance impacts collections. The facilitator's delivery made complex legal procedures easy to understand. I gained knowledge that will allow me to strengthen arrears management and communication across my department.

Name Withheld, Department of Immigration, Georgetown, Guyana

The strategies I learned in this training improved my performance review and mentoring approaches, which are crucial for collections. I also discovered new methods to help my team grow and achieve results. It was an excellent balance of theory and practice, and I would recommend it widely within our sector.

Name Withheld, National Bank of Dominica, Dominica

This training gave me clear insight into revenue protection and the importance of proactive debt collections in the utility sector. The instructor provided practical tools that I can immediately integrate into daily operations. I left with renewed confidence and structured strategies to help reduce arrears and strengthen customer relationships.

Name Withheld, Barbados Light & Power Company, Barbados

Some of these courses have been conducted in partnership and collaboration with Florida Atlantic University, Bermuda College, Barbados Community College, as well as several regional governance and statutory corporations

Customized training courses for public and private sector corporations.
Website: www.cohenandklein.com; E-mail: training@cohenandklein.com, Call 954-731-6340; Fax 954-731-6606

Strategic human capital development training courses.

Strategic corporate training programs.